Dear Sir/Mam,

Refer to the accreditation of Mechanical , Chemical and NDT testing for which the validity is expiring on 20.12.2022 extended up to 20.01.2023.

NABL is pleased to inform the extension in validity of accreditation to the laboratory for the existing scope of accreditation in the discipline of Mechanical , Chemical and NDT testing for a period of one month (up to 20.02.2023) or till further decision on the renewal of accreditation is taken, whichever is earlier.

You may use the NABL symbol and claim accreditation status as per NABL 133 document w.r.t. existing scope for an extended period of accreditation.

Thanks & Regards,
